Post	N/A
Section	N/A
Number of Interns	2

Project Description

USAID/ASHA supports schools, libraries, and medical centers outside of the United States that serve as study and demonstration centers for the ideas and practices of the United States. The ASHA program helps foster mutual understanding and positive relationships between the U.S. and foreign countries through grants to premier institutions committed to the advancement of health and education globally. Over the course of FY16 and FY17, USAID/ASHA plans to roll-out several new communications and training tools. The communications items will be targeted at USAID/ASHA's major stakeholders, including peer offices within the Agency, other U.S. Government entities, and the American public, and cover topics ranging from USAID/ASHA's current portfolio to its historical accomplishments. Training items will generally be targeted towards USAID/ASHA's partners, with the purpose of helping them understand and navigate USAID/ASHA's procedures.
